Message From Proprietor

I would like to introduce our company Ahmed International (RL-1146) which is one of the leading manpower development and supply companies in Bangladesh. I wish to welcome all our domestic and international clients both from private and public sectors to Ahmed International.

Unemployment has always been one of the biggest problems in Bangladesh for a long time. So to solve this problem, we work day and night to facilitate job opportunities in abroad for the unemployed workers. To overcome the unemployment problem in our country, we all need to work together.

We do not provide any usual recruiting services, but to provide service to the highest of professional and personal ethics possible. One of our objectives is to build trust and reliability with all our partners and business associates with whom we will do business for a long term. With hard work and professional approach, it is possible for all the recruiting agencies to provide the best service possible.

Our brochure will provide you with information about our company, services and countries of operation. You will get an idea of our mission and vision for the future.

I wish everyone the very best in life. Stay focused, go after your dreams and keep moving towards your goals.

Sincerely yours,
Mr Benjir Ahmed
